WATERTOWN, MA (September 20, 2012) –Father Louis Scurti to Appear on Live Talk Show of the CatholicTV® Network

On Friday, September 21, 2012, Father Louis Scurti will appear on the CatholicTV Network's nationally broadcasted live talk show; This is the Day to discuss his work in Campus Ministry and his ongoing video Ministry of the Word.

Born in Jersey City, Father Scurti was ordained a Catholic priest in 1973. For thirty-one years, he served William Paterson as director of the Catholic Campus Ministry, Bishop Rodimer Catholic Campus Ministry Center (CCMC), and Jesus Christ Prince of Peace Chapel. He was the host of "The Word: Alive and Well," the Catholic Campus Ministry Communication's flagship television production, which aired on forty cable networks throughout the country and on his website.

Father Scurti worked as an adjunct professor both at the University and St. Peter's College in the Fine Arts, Sociology and History Departments. He is also a licensed marriage and family therapist, and worked closely with the University's Counseling, Health, and Wellness Center.

The volunteer programs Father Lou has initiated at the University include the annual Thanksgiving Awareness and Shelter the Homeless programs, which over the years, have netted tens of thousands of dollars directly to county agencies that feed and house the poor. He also initiated outreach programs to Preakness Nursing Home, the North Jersey Developmental Center, and Eva's Kitchen.

Father Lou holds the following academic degrees: B.A. in philosophy from Seton Hall Degree in liberal arts from Johns Hopkins University; a master of fine arts from Montclair State University; and an Educational Specialist degree in Marriage and Family Therapy from the School of Psychology and Human Services of Seton Hall University. In May 2000, Father Lou was awarded his Ph.D. in Family Mediation from La Salle University. He is a licensed M&F therapist in NJ & FL.
